

Scotland, pp 6, 7

Jump, January 2018

1. True (T) or false (F)?

- a. Scotland is part of England.
- b. The head of state is the president.
- c. Some Scots speak Gaelic.
- d. The capital of Scotland is Glasgow.
- e. Scots celebrate Burns Morning.
- f. Robert Burns was a Scottish poet.
- g. He lived in the 19th century.

2. Listen and fill in the gaps.

On January 25th, Scots all over the world _____ Burns Night. Robert Burns (1759-1796) was a Scottish poet. People invite their families and friends to have a big dinner. There is chicken and leek _____ and a traditional Scottish dish, called haggis. Scots usually eat haggis with _____ potatoes and turnips. Then they have a dessert. People also drink whisky. During the evening, people recite Burns' poems, play music, _____ and sing. In Scotland, they also play the bagpipes. At the end of the evening, people hold hands and _____ Auld Lang Syne. This is a traditional Scottish _____ with words by Robert Burns.

3. Fill in Scottish/ Scotland/ Scots and match to make sentences.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1. _____ is part ... | a. English and Gaelic. |
| 2. The national meal of _____... | b. of the UK. |
| 3. _____ national dress ... | c. is haggis. |
| 4. The national flower of _____... | d. is the kilt. |
| 5. _____ speak ... | e. is the thistle. |
| 6. The _____ flag ... | f. is blue with a white cross. |

Scotland, pp 6, 7

Jump, January 2018

SOLUTIONS

1. True (T) or false (F)?

- a. Scotland is part of England. F
- b. The head of state is the president. F
- c. Some Scots speak Gaelic. T
- d. The capital of Scotland is Glasgow. F
- e. Scots celebrate Burns Morning. F
- f. Robert Burns was a Scottish poet. T
- g. He lived in the 19th century. F

2. Listen and fill in the gaps.

On January 25th, Scots all over the world celebrate Burns Night. Robert Burns (1759-1796) was a Scottish poet. People invite their families and friends to have a big dinner. There is chicken and leek soup and a traditional Scottish dish, called haggis. Scots usually eat haggis with mashed potatoes and turnips. Then they have a dessert. People also drink whisky. During the evening, people recite Burns' poems, play music, dance and sing. In Scotland, they also play the bagpipes. At the end of the evening, people hold hands and sing Auld Lang Syne. This is a traditional Scottish song with words by Robert Burns.

3. Fill in Scottish/ Scotland/ Scots and match to make sentences.

- 1. Scotland is part ...  a. English and Gaelic.
- 2. The national meal of Scotland ...  b. of the UK.
- 3. Scottish national dress ...  c. is haggis.
- 4. The national flower of Scotland ...  d. is the kilt.
- 5. Scots speak ...  e. is the thistle.
- 6. The Scottish flag ...  f. is blue with a white cross.