

Truck Driver, pp 32, 33

Jump, September, October 2020

download free at www.gradus.cz

1. Match.

OPPOSITES		SYNONYMS
take off	unload	in a foreign country	abroad
load	put on	company	lots of cars going slowly
patience	less	traffic jam	things for sale
more	impatience	goods	firm

2. Listen to the interview and say if these sentences are true (T) or false (F).

- Pavol likes to keep his truck clean.
- He works, sleeps, cooks and eats in his truck.
- He usually drives to Australia.
- He has a CE group driving licence.
- You need patience to be a truck driver.
- There's not much waiting in Pavol's job.
- You need to speak English and German very well to be a truck driver.

3. Fill in the prepositions.

Because ___ my job, I spend a lot ___ time waiting. I wait ___ traffic jams and I wait ___ people to load and unload the goods. This is something I really hate ___ the job.

4. Ask questions about Pavol's job.

- Q: What _____? A: He drives a 16.9-metre-long truck.
- Q: What driving licence _____? A: He has a C and a CE group driving licence.
- Q: How many _____? A: He drives hundreds of kilometres.
- Q: What languages _____? A: He needs basic English and German.
- Q: What else _____? A: He needs patience.
- Q: What _____? A: He likes that he makes good money and travels a lot.

Truck Driver, pp 32, 33

Jump, September, October 2020

download free at www.gradus.cz

SOLUTIONS

1. Match.

OPPOSITES		SYNONYMS
take off	unload	in a foreign country	abroad
load	put on	company	lots of cars going slowly
patience	less	traffic jam	things for sale
more	impatience	goods	firm

2. Listen to the interview and say if these sentences are true (T) or false(F).

- Pavol likes to keep his truck clean. T
- He works, sleeps, cooks and eats in his truck. T
- He usually drives to Australia. F
- He has a CE group driving licence. T
- You need patience to be a truck driver. T
- There's not much waiting in Pavol's job. F
- You need to speak English and German very well to be a truck driver. F

3. Fill in the prepositions.

Because in my job, I spend a lot of time waiting. I wait in traffic jams and I wait for people to load and unload the goods. This is something I really hate about the job.

4. Ask questions about Pavol's job.

- | | |
|--|---|
| Q: What does he drive ? | A: He drives a 16.9-metre-long truck. |
| Q: What driving licence does he have ? | A: He has a C and a CE group driving licence. |
| Q: How many kilometres does he drive ? | A: He drives hundreds of kilometres. |
| Q: What languages does he need ? | A: He needs basic English and German. |
| Q: What else does he need for his job ? | A: He needs patience. |
| Q: What does he like about his job ? | A: He likes that he makes good money and travels a lot. |