

Imperial Units, 6, 7

Jump, March 2020

1. Listen and fill in the missing units.

Length Imperial units are miles, _____, inches and some more units. For example, a trip is 5 _____ long, a wall is 16 feet long, and jeans are 28 _____ at the waist.

2. Match the questions with the quantity they ask about.

Questions

How tall are you?

How much do you weigh?

How heavy is that?

How far is that?

How long is it?

Quantity

WEIGHT/ MASS

LENGTH

3. Write I for an imperial unit, M for a metric unit, W for a unit of weight and L for a unit of length.

	Metric or imperial?	Weight or length?
stone
foot metre kilometre mile kilogram pound gram centimetre inch

4. Answer the questions.

How tall are you? I'm _____ cm or _____ ft _____ in tall.

What is your weight? I weigh _____ kg or _____ st or _____ lb.

Imperial Units, 6, 7

Jump, March 2020

download free at www.gradus.cz

SOLUTIONS

1. Listen and fill in the missing units.

Length Imperial units are miles, feet, inches and some more units. For example, a trip is 5 miles long, a wall is 16 feet long, and jeans are 28 inches at the waist.

2. Match the questions with the quantity they ask about.

Questions

Quantity

How tall are you?

How much do you weigh?

How heavy is that?

How far is that?

How long is it?

WEIGHT/ MASS

LENGTH

3. Write I for an imperial unit, M for a metric unit, W for a unit of weight and L for a unit of length.

	Metric or imperial?	Weight or length?
stone	I	W
foot	I	L
metre	M	L
kilometre	M	L
mile	I	L
kilogram	M	W
pound	I	W
gram	M	W
centimetre	M	L
inch	I	L

4. Answer the questions. Example solutions.

How tall are you? I'm 167 cm or 5ft 6in tall.

What is your weight? I weigh 60kg or 9st, 6lb or 133lb.