

Martina and the Scout Camp

July, August 2019

true story, level A2, www.gradus.cz

1. Read (or listen to) the story. Underline the mistakes and correct them.

a. Martina was at a scout camp for the second time. _____

b. There was electricity, but no wi-fi. _____

c. She heard a scream from the forest. _____

d. They called 112. _____

e. She saw real blood. _____

2. Listen and fill in the gaps.

One sunny afternoon after lunch, she _____ the dishes in the camp kitchen. All of a sudden, she heard a horrible scream from the river _____ the kitchen. Martina and her friends decided to find out what happened. When they got to the river, they _____ believe their eyes. On the other bank of the river there were two camp leaders _____ on the ground. "Help us, please! We are bleeding!" they _____.

3. Complete the sentences with past forms of: run, fall, help, slip, give, get, hurt

a. The camp leaders _____ on a stone, _____ down and _____ their legs and arms.

b. The scouts _____ back to the kitchen to grab a first aid kit.

c. When they _____ to the other bank, they _____ the leaders and _____ them first aid.

4. Fill in the missing prepositions.

a. Martina was _____ a scout camp _____ the first time.

b. She started to get used _____ the daily schedule.

c. They slipped _____ a stone.

d. They were covered _____ blood.

e. Now she can help people _____ need.

Martina and the Scout Camp

July, August 2019

true story, level A2, www.gradus.cz

SOLUTIONS

1. Read (or listen to) the story. Underline the mistakes and correct them.

- a. Martina was at a scout camp for the second time. first
- b. There was electricity, but no wi-fi. no electricity
- c. She heard a scream from the forest. river
- d. They called 112. didn't call
- e. She saw real blood. fake

2. Listen and fill in the gaps.

One sunny afternoon after lunch, she was doing the dishes in the camp kitchen. All of a sudden, she heard a horrible scream from the river next to the kitchen. Martina and her friends decided to find out what happened. When they got to the river, they couldn't believe their eyes. On the other bank of the river there were two camp leaders lying on the ground. "Help us, please! We are bleeding!" they screamed.

3. Complete the sentences with past forms of: run, fall, help, slip, give, get, hurt

- a. The camp leaders slipped on a stone, fell down and hurt their legs and arms.
- b. The scouts ran back to the kitchen to grab a first aid kit.
- c. When they got to the other bank, they helped the leaders and gave them first aid.

4. Fill in the missing prepositions.

- a. Martina was at a scout camp for the first time.
- b. She started to get used to the daily schedule.
- c. They slipped on a stone.
- d. They were covered with blood.
- e. Now she can help people in need.